SIGNING OFF

The time has come to hand over the baton which I am gladly willing to do. The past 20 months have been a long journey. A lot of time is spent reorganizing the secretariat and looking at ways to improve PAM's financial status. I am glad the result has been positive and PAM is now out of the Red. In fact, we have even managed to secure enough sponsors to finance some of the major activities for term 2013 -2014.

However I honestly hope the council and secretariat will continue to practise a firm control of the budget and adhere to the phase set to ensure that PAM shall continue to have a healthy financial position.

Although the new council will be smaller, I strongly believe it is not the quantity that matters but the quality. This is proven during the council term 2011-2012. If the council put their heart into it, they can do wonders. Office bearers have a great responsibility and have to work very hard.

As Immediate Past President, I will support the new council and President in whatever they intend to do if it benefits members and the profession. I will be more than willing to help if my services and advice are required.

However I would like to advise the President and Council not to be afraid to fight and voice out any issue that has an impact on the profession. Don't be afraid to ruffle feathers and change the system. Otherwise we will lose out to other professions who are more than willing to take over. We should not be complacent and never be a YES man but then again we should not fight just for the sake of fighting. We need to have a clear vision. The profession really needs to be revamped in order to compete with the various changes and we must be ready to compete with the competitors and challenges that are affecting the profession both internally and externally. PAM was THE institute and we must maintain and continue to be ONE!

PAM ELECTIONS

With the results having been announced, I hope all the candidates will close rank and work together for the betterment of the members and the institute. We have no choice but to work together in view of the challenges that the institute is currently facing.

As for PAM secretariat, you are the back bone of PAM. You need to be proactive and guide the council especially on matters relating to policies and concerning the constitution.

Members have voted the council into office. So, Council members, you have an obligation towards members to perform.

As for PAM members, you have made your choice, give the council time to perform and at the same time, your services and assistance are also required. Please continue to volunteer to assist in the committees. The institute requires your voluntary services and assistance badly.

Finally I would like to thank everyone, all PAM Past Presidents for having guided me with their continuous support and advice and my council members. My personal gratitude goes to some key PAM current and former secretariat staff, Paul Lai Chu, Zarina, Roze, Nik, Ila, Yati, Victor, Zainal and Olivia, also staff of GSB and ACSB for their undying patience and tolerance of me throughout the terms from my council days. Special thanks to Past President Hj. Hussein for the very special advice. May the Almighty bless all of you.

REGISTER &
PAY ONLINE

DATE / TIME / VENUE

20 June 2013 / 2pm - 5.30pm / Plenary Theatre
Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre

THEME

defunct + functional

The theme for KLDF 2013, 'deFUNCTIONAL', features a discourse of design that explores two very contradicting terms, defunct and functional which calls for a reflective thinking and re-thinking of design. While functional is commonly known as 'fit for purpose', defunct, being synonym to terms such as bygone, bypass, extinct, departed, expired and vanished, brings together a range of negative connotations of uselessness. The question is: How can designers make defunct design functional?

This design forum offers a discourse on the complexity between defunct and functional as the premise of design thinking by which a whole new and stimulating body of work emerged, one that is beyond the expiry of design.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF THE MINUTES OF THE 10TH MEETING OF PAM COUNCIL 2012-2013

29 MARCH 2013

The status of the development of the New PAM Centre at Jalan Tanduk is as follows:

- The Client/Consultant Meeting was held on 25 March 2013, together with DBKL JPBD team to have a quick discussion on the submission;
- The OSC meeting was held on 27 March 2013 and the amendment to the DO was approved;
- Construction work is expected to start as soon as submission of Borang B is approved;
- The proposed 3 contractors were approved to submit for tender;
- The next Client/Consultant meeting will be held on 22 April 2013.

Council approved the new membership applications of 3 Corporate Members, 24 Graduate Members, 1 Associate Graduate Member, 55 Student Members, Reinstatement of 1 Graduate Member, and 1 application for Resignation.

The PAM Southern Chapter proposed to open a small office at UTM with the objective to disseminate and receive information and feedback specifically to encourage rapport among students and the Chapter. The Chapter is also looking into reorganising and renovating its existing secretariat office.

The ADR Committee reported that KLRCA has requested the Minister of Works to enforce the CIPA Act by 1 June 2013. The Professional Practice Committee, CPD Committee and ADR Committee will work together to establish the relevant seminars to educate members so that members will take caution and ensure proper certification in accordance to all the rules.

Originally the Education Committee had asked Sabah and Sarawak Chapters to send representatives to the Professional Practice Course (PPC) as under-studies to learn how to conduct the courses at the Chapters. However, due to logistics and financial considerations, the committee has decided to send video recordings of the PPC's sessions to the chapters instead.

MAPSM appears to be going ahead with its proposal to abolish the automatic recognition of overseas architectural programmes. PAM's objection to the proposal has been recorded in the minutes of MAPSM's meeting. The Education Committee requests that PAM representatives at the Board of Architects Malaysia to champion PAM's stand not to allow MAPSM to abolish the automatic recognition of overseas architectural programmes.

The Heritage Conservation Committee reported that the family of the architect who designed Masjid Jamek, Mr. A. B Hubback, would like to donate an original painting of Masjid Jamek to PAM. Ar Ahmad Najib who coincidentally will be going to the UK, will be stopping by in London to collect the painting and do a quick interview with the family.

The next issue of AM (25:1) on the theme "New Green Buildings in Malaysia" was targeted to be ready in time for Eco B Forum/ exhibition however it did not happen. The following issue (25:2) on "Institutes' is also delayed due to lack of material.

Professional Practice Committee will co-organise with CPD Committee a workshop on Stage Certification to enlighten all parties, including REHDA members and bankers, regarding the confusions related to certifications.

The Youth Committee reported the winners for the PAM Pavilion Competition as follows:

1. Edward Chew Chin Meng
2. Lee Jin Liang
3. Ong Keng Pin

The PAM Pavilion at Eco B Exhibition was one of the most visited booths and the Committee expressed hope that next time there would be more time to prepare.
